

RAINMAKER - Harry Nilsson/William Martin

4/4 1...2...1234 (slow count)

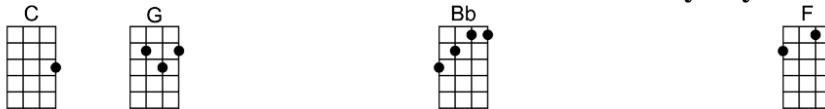

Intro: 4 measures of percussion

First day in August, the last rain was in May

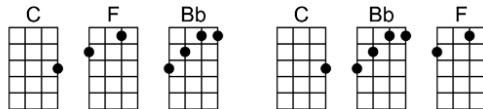

When the Rainmaker came to Kansas in the middle of a dusty day

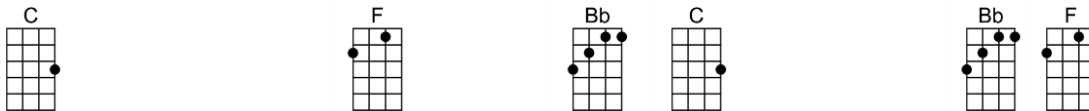

Said the Rainmaker to the people, tell me what you are prepared to pay

Said the Rainmaker to the people, now I'll conjure up a rain to-day

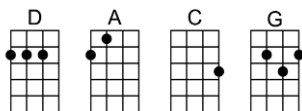

Interlude:

Ninety degrees 'neath the trees where it's shady, hundred and ten in the hot sun

Heat from the street burns the feet of the ladies, see how they run.

Ah..... (X2)

p.2. Rainmaker

Call down the lightnin' by a mystical name

And the Rainmaker called on the thunder and it suddenly began to rain

And the Rainmaker passed his hat to the people, but the people all turned a-way

And the Rainmaker's eyes and the Kansas skies well they both became a darker gray.

Interlude:

Ah..... (X2)

First day of August, the last rain was in May

When the Rainmaker came to Kansas in the middle of a dusty day

The Rainmaker smiled as he hitched up his wagon and with-out a word he rode a-way

Then the people of the town heard the sound of his laughter and they knew the rain had come to stay

(X3, end on

Rain rain go away, come again an-other day.
