

Broken Old Doll – Lesley Duncan (1974)

Intro: ( F Bb F Bb ) x2 6/8 Slow strum

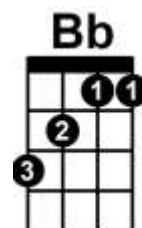

When I was too weary - - - to keep on the right road
 You guided my footsteps - - - and showed me the way
 When I was too bitter - - To look on the bright side
 You showed me my own fears - - and lov-ed them away,
 - - and lov-ed them away

When I was too angry {ooh, ooh} and just gave up trying
 You made me stop cry-y-ing {ooh, ooh} and se-e through your eyes
And nothing can harm me - - if seen through a lifetime {through a lifetime}
 You threw me a lifeline {ooh, ooh} to pull myself through,
 - - to pull myself through

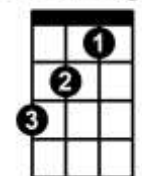

- Yes you came to my rescue {ooh, ooh} when I went through my
 Seasons {went through my seasons} You showed me the re-e-asons {ooh, ooh}
 And broke down the wall {broke down the wall}
 When I was in pieces {ooh, oo-oh ooh} you put me together {put me together}
 You put me together {ooh, oo-oh ooh} like a Broken Old Doll
 - - Like a Broken Old Doll

When I was too weary {like a broken old doll}
 You put me together {like a broken old doll}
 When I was too bitter {like a broken old doll}
 You put me together {like a broken old doll}
 When I was too angry {like a broken old doll}
 You put me together {like a broken old doll} - like a broken old doll
