TREES w. Joyce Kilmer/m. Oscar Rasbach

4/4 1234 (slow count)

Intro:    (X2)

I think I shall never see a poem lovely as a tree.

A tree whose hungry mouth is pressed against the earth's sweet flowing breast

A tree that looks at God all day, and lifts her leafy arms to pray

Interlude: same as intro

A tree that may in summer wear a nest of robins in her hair

Upon whose bosom snow has lain, who intimately lives with rain

Poems are made by fools like me, but only God can make a tree
