

JUG BAND MUSIC- John Sebastian

4/4 1...2...123 (without intro)

Intro: | G | G F F# | G | / |
4 3 1 & 4 4

G
I was down in Savannah, eatin' cream and bananas, when the heat just made me faint

G
I began to get cross-eyed, I thought I was lost, I'd begun to see things as they ain't.

A
As the relatives gathered to see what's the matter, the doctor came to see was I died.

G D7 G
But the doctor said, "Give him jug band music. It seems to make him feel just fine."

D7 G
I was told a little tale about a skinny-as-a-rail eight foot cowboy with a headache

D7
He was hung up in the desert swattin' rats, and tryin' to get a drink of water

G
With his knees a-gettin' mud-caked

And I'll tell you in a sentence how he stumbled into Memphis, Tennessee

C
Hardly crawlin', lookin' dust-baked.

G
We gave him little water, a little bit of wine. He opened up his eyes, but they didn't seem to shine

D7 G (intro riff)
Then the doctor said, "Give him jug band music. It seems to make him feel just fine."

p.2. Jug Band Music

G D7
So, if you ever get sickly, get sister, run quickly to the dusty closet shelf

G
And pull out a washboard, and play a guitar chord, and do a little do-it-your-self.

A
Call on your neighbors to put down their labors, and come and play the hardware in time

G D7 G
‘Cause the doctor said, “Give him jug band music. It seems to make him feel just fine.”

D7 G
I was floatin' in the ocean, greased with suntan lotion, when I got wiped out by a beach boy

D7
He was surfen' when he hit me, but jumped off his board to get me

G
And he dragged me by the armpit like a child's toy

As we staggered into land with all the waiters eatin' sandwiches

We tried to mooch a towel from the hoi polloi

G
He emptied out his eardrums, I emptied out mine, and everybody knows that the very last line is

G D7 G
The doctor said, “Give him jug band music. It seems to make him feel just fine.”

G D7 G G7
And the doctor said, “Give him jug band music. It seems to make him feel just fine.”
