

THAT HOLIDAY FEELING

Intro: |   |   | (X2) (Steve Lawrence's parts are underlined)

Look how the snow is snowin'. Your eyes are soft and glowin'

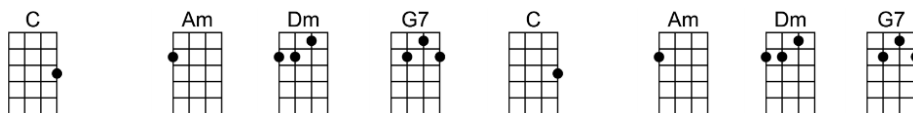

Jack Frost is nippin' at our feet. I'll bet your lips are warm and sweet

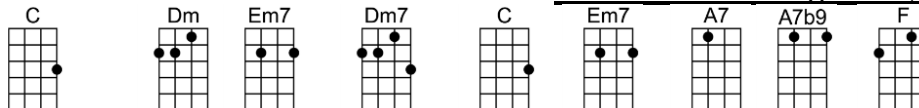

We've got that holiday feelin', that hap-py holiday feelin'

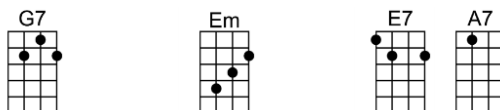

Let's roast chestnuts by the fire. Any little thing you desire

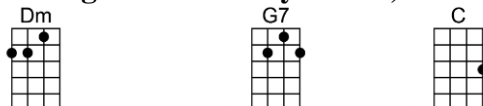

Those reindeer soon will be here. Won't mean a thing to me, dear

When Santa Claus be-gins his flight. I hope he gets a flat to-night

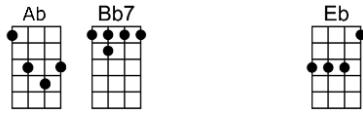

We've got that holiday feelin', that hap-py holiday feelin'

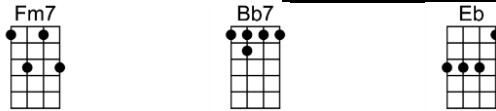

Our favorite holiday of the year

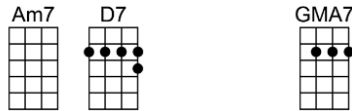

p.2. That Holiday Feeling

You'd better leave. It's been so lovely here like this,

A chance I'd never miss. But it's so late

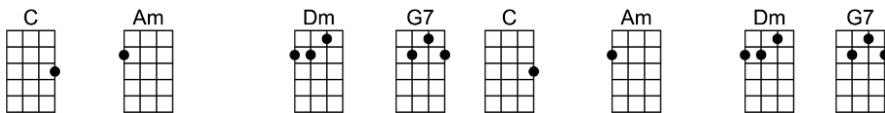

On New Years' Eve, at twelve o'clock, we'll stop to kiss

And while the whole world will be whistle-blowing

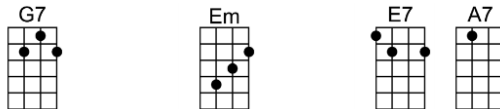

We will still be mistletoe-ing

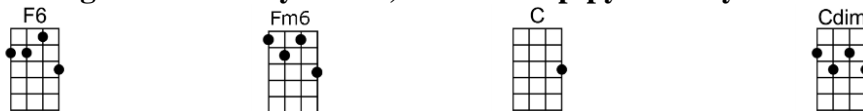

You think you're such a smarty. Come on, let's have a party

I know what's runnin' through your mind. This is the season to be kind

We've got that holiday feelin', that hap-py holiday feelin'

So, come and snuggle close to me. Right here where you're supposed to be

Let's kiss, 'cause it's the season, dear. Let's kiss, who needs a reason, dear?

We've got that holiday feeling now
