Intro: |  |  |  |  | (X2)

 |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |

Chicken, nice fried chicken, barbecued chicken,

 |  |  |  |

Won't you send it down the line?

 |  |  |

Say, everyone's talking 'bout chicken. Chicken's a popular word

 |  |  |  |  |  |

But anywhere you go, you're bound to find a chicken ain't nothin' but a bird

Some people call it a fowl. That's the story I heard

 |  |  |  |  |  |

But let 'em call it this, and let 'em call it that, a chicken ain't nothin' but a bird

 |  |  |

You can boil it, roast it, broil it, cook it in a pan or a pot

 |  |  |  |

Eat it with potatoes, rice or tomatoes, but chicken's still what you got, boy!

p.2. A Chicken Ain't Nothin' But a Bird

It was a dish for old Caesar, also, King Henry the Third

But Co-lumbus was smart, said, "You can't fool me, a chicken ain't nothin' but a bird"
