

No Banker was Left Behind

Ry Cooder

C F C
My telephone rang one evening, my buddy called for me
F C G
Said the bankers are all leavin', you better come round and see
C F C
It started revelation, they robbed the nation blind,
F C F C G C
They're all down at the station, no banker left behind.
G
No banker, no banker, no banker could I find.
F C F C G C
They're all down at the station, no banker left behind.

C F C
Well the bankers called a meetin', to the Whitehouse they went one day
F C G
They was going to call on the president, in a quiet and a sociable way
C F C
The afternoon was sunny and the weather it was fine
F C F C G C
They counted all our money and no banker was left behind
G
No banker, no banker, no banker could I find.
F C F C G C
They're all down at the White House, no banker left behind.

C F C
Well I hear the whistle blowin, it plays a happy tune
F C G
The conductor is calling "all abort", we'll be leavin soon
C F C
With champagne and shrimp cocktails and that's not all you'll find
F C F C G C
There's a billion dollar bonus and no banker left behind
G
No banker, no banker, no banker could I find.
F C F C G C
When the train pulled out next mornin', no banker was left behind
