

Just the Way You Look Tonight

Dorothy Fields, Jerome Kern

D Bm Em7 A7 F#m Bm7
 Some day, when I'm awfully low, when the world is cold
 G Em/ A7/ D Bm7
 I will feel a-glow just thinking of you
 Em7/ G/ A7 D Em7 A7 A7
 And the way you look tonight

2 beats
per chord

D Bm Em7 A7 F#m Bm7
 You're lovely, with your smile so warm, and your cheeks so soft
 G Em/ A7/ D Bm7
 There is nothing for me but to love you
 Em7/ G/ A7 D Gdim D D
 And the way you look tonight

Bm7 Bm7 Em7 Em7
 With each word your tenderness grows
 Bm7 Bm7 G A7
 Tearing my fear apart
 Bm7 Bm7 Em7 Em
 And that laugh that wrinkles your nose
 Bm// Bm7// F#7
 Touches my foolish heart

This song won the Oscar for best Original Song in 1936 when Fred Astaire sang it to Ginger Rogers in the film Swing Time.

D Bm Em7 A7 F#m Bm7
 You're lovely, never never change, keep that breathless charm
 G Em/ A7/ D Bm7
 Won't you please arrange it 'cause I love you
 Em7/ G/ A7 D
 Just the way you look tonight
