

Hello Grandma

Lyle Lovett

D E7 A7 D D E7 A7 D
Hello grandma, how is your granddaughter. Hello grandma, how is that little girl
D E7 A7 D
I've been kind of out of touch but I thought I would call her
D/ Dsus4/ B/ B7/ A/ A7/ D
Is she at home or is she around the world <repeat this line>

D E7 A7 D
Well young man you must mean Kathy but I never heard her mention you
D E7 A7 D
No ma'am I don't mean Kathy, I don't hardly even know her
D E7 A7 D
Well Kathy's just fine, you know she's still going to school
D E7 A7 D
But she'll be home Father's Day to see her father

D E7 A7 D
Well, no grandma, how's your other granddaughter
D E7 A7 D
You know grandma, how is that little girl
D E7 A7 D
I've been kind of out of touch lately but I did used to know her
D/ Dsus4/ B/ B7/ A/ A7/ D
Is she at home or is she around the world <repeat this line>

D E7 A7 D
Well young man you can't mean her, why didn't you hear
D E7 A7 D
She got married and moved off to Chicago
D E7 A7 D
And her husband's so handsome and she just loves it up there
D E7 A7 D
His family owns a newspaper and an opulent disco

D E7 A7 D
Whoa Grandma is this nine two four eight
D E7 A7 D
Eight three eight. Yes young man it certainly is
D E7 A7 D
Well that's the problem grandma, I have made a mistake
D/ Dsus4/ B/ B7/ A/ A7/ D
I ain't called this number in too many years (Repeat this line then verse 1)
