

SHE DIDN'T SAY YES, SHE DIDN'T SAY NO

4/4 1...2...1234

-Jerome Kern/Otto Harbach

Intro: |   |   | (X2)

 She didn't say yes, she didn't say no. She didn't say stay, she didn't say go
 She didn't say yes, she didn't say no. They very soon stood be-side his cha-teau

 She only knew that he'd spied her there, and then she knew he sat be-side her there
 They lingered like two poor waifs out-side, for, well she knew 'twas only safe out-side

 At first there was heard not one little word, then cooly she took one sly little look
 In there it was warm, out there it was cold, the sleet and the storm said, "better be bold!"

 And something a-woke and smiled in-side. Her heart be-gan beating wild in-side
 She murmured, "I'm not a-fraid of ice, I only wish that I was made of ice"

    (     ) X2
 So what did she do? I leave it to you. She did just what you'd do too (2nd verse)
 So what did she do? I leave it to you. She did just what you'd do too

p.2. She Didn't Say Yes, She Didn't Say No

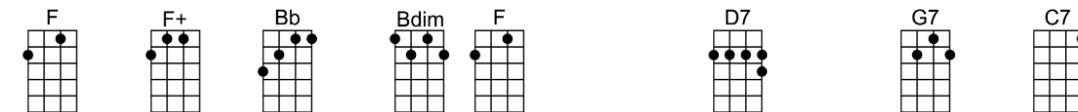

She didn't say yes, she didn't say no. She wanted to stay, but knew she should go
She didn't say yes, she didn't say no, for heaven was near, she wanted it so

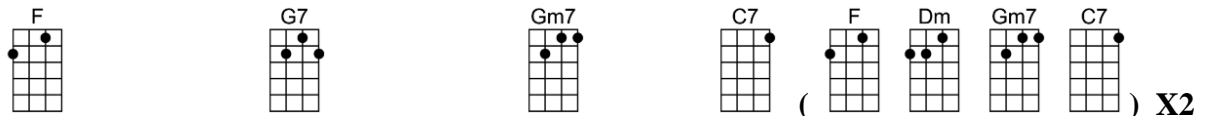

She wasn't so sure that he'd be good, she wasn't even sure that she'd be good
A-bove her sweet love was beckon---ing, and yet she knew there'd be a reck-on-ing

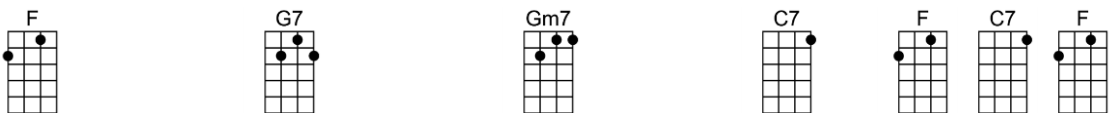

She wanted to rest, all cuddled and pressed, a palpable part of somebody's heart
She wanted to climb, but dreaded to fall, so bided her time, and clung to the wall

She'd love to be on rap-port with him, but not be-hind a bolted door with him
She wanted to act ad libi - tum, but feared to lose her equi-libri - um

1. And what did she do? I leave it to you. She did just what you'd do too (4th verse)

2. So what did she do? I leave it to you. She did.....just what you'd...do too

SHE DIDN'T SAY YES, SHE DIDN'T SAY NO

4/4 1...2...1234

-Jerome Kern/Otto Harbach

Intro: | F Dm | Gm7 C7 | (X2)

F Dm Gm7 C7 F Dm Gm7 C7
She didn't say yes, she didn't say no. She didn't say stay, she didn't say go
F F+ Bb Bdim F D7 G7 C7
She only knew that he had spied her there, and then she knew he sat be-side her there
D D6 Em7 A7 F Dm Gm7 C7
At first there was heard not one little word, then coyly she took one sly little look
F F+ Bb Bdim F D7 G7 C7
And something a-woke and smiled in-side. Her heart be-gan beating wild in-side

F G7 Gm7 C7 (F Dm Gm7 C7) X2
So what did she do? I leave it to you. She did just what you'd do too

F Dm Gm7 C7 F Dm Gm7 C7
She didn't say yes, she didn't say no. They very soon stood be-side his cha-teau
F F+ Bb Bdim F D7 G7 C7
They lingered like two poor waifs out-side, for, well she knew 'twas only safe out-side
D D6 Em7 A7 F Dm Gm7 C7
In there it was warm, out there it was cold, the sleet and the storm said, "better be bold!"
F F+ Bb Bdim F D7 G7 C7
She murmured, "I'm not a-fraid of ice, I only wish that I was made of ice"

F G7 Gm7 C7 (F Dm Gm7 C7) X2
So what did she do? I leave it to you. She did just what you'd do too

F Dm Gm7 C7 F Dm Gm7 C7
She didn't say yes, she didn't say no. She wanted to stay, but knew she should go
F F+ Bb Bdim F D7 G7 C7
She wasn't so sure that he'd be good, she wasn't even sure that she'd be good
D D6 Em7 A7 F Dm Gm7 C7
She wanted to rest, all cuddled and pressed, a palpa-ble part of somebody's heart
F F+ Bb Bdim F D7 G7 C7
She'd love to be on rap-port with him, but not be-hind a bolted door with him

F G7 Gm7 C7 (F Dm Gm7 C7) X2
And what did she do? I leave it to you. She did just what you'd do too

F Dm Gm7 C7 F Dm Gm7 C7
She didn't say yes, she didn't say no, for heaven was near, she wanted it so
F F+ Bb Bdim F D7 G7 C7
A-bove her sweet love was beckon-ing, and yet she knew there'd be a reck-on-ing
D D6 Em7 A7 F Dm Gm7 C7
She wanted to climb, but dreaded to fall, so bided her time, and clung to the wall
F F+ Bb Bdim F D7 G7 C7
She wanted to act ad libi - tum, but feared to lose her equi-libri-um

F G7 Gm7 C7 F C7 F
So what did she do? I leave it to you. She did.....just what you'd...do too