

The Wedding Song

Noel Paul Stookey

I V IV I
He is now to be among you at the calling of your hearts
VIIm I V V
Rest assured this troubadour is acting on his part
I V IV I
The union of your spirits here has caused him to remain
VIIm I V V
For whenever two or more of you are gathered in his name
IV IV IV IV I IIIm IV I
There is love, there is love

I V IV I
Well a man shall leave his mother and a woman leave her home
VIIm I V V
They shall travel on to where the two shall be as one
I V IV I
As it was in the beginning, is now until the end
VIIm I V V
Woman draws her life from man and gives it back again
IV IV IV IV I IIIm IV I
And there's love, there is love

IV IV V I
Well then what's to be reason for becoming man and wife
IV IV V I
Is it love that brings you here, or love that gives you life
I V IV I
For if loving is the answer, then who's the giving for?
VIIm I V V
Do you believe in something that you've never seen before?
IV IV IV IV I IIIm IV I
There is love, there is love

Paul Stookey first performed this song at the wedding of Peter Yarrow
