

MUSIC SPEAKS LOUDER THAN WORDS

4/4 1...2...1234

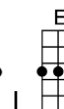

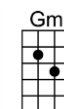

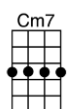

-H. Payne/E. Pease/M. Scarpiello

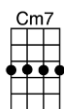

Music speaks louder than words. It's the only thing that the whole world listens to.

Music speaks louder than words. When you sing, people under-stand.

Interlude:

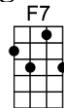

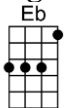

Sometimes the love that you feel in-side gets lost between your heart and your mind

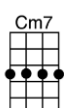

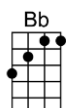

And the words don't really say the things you wanted them to.

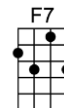

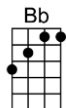

But then you hear in someone's song what you'd been trying to say all a-long

And somehow with the magic of music the message comes through.

Music speaks louder than words. It's the only thing that the whole world listens to.

Music speaks louder than words. When you sing, people under-stand.

p.2. Music Speaks Louder Than Words

The longer I live the more I find oh, that people seldom take the time

To really get to know a stranger and make him a friend.

But the power of a simple song can make everybody feel they be-long.

Maybe singin' and playin' can bring us together a-gain.

Singin' and playin' can bring us together a-gain

Music speaks louder than words. It's the only thing that the whole world listens to.

Music speaks louder than words. When you sing, people under-stand.

That music speaks louder than words

(Music speaks louder than words)

Music speaks louder than words. When you sing, people under-stand.
