Jambalaya On the Bayou

by Hank Williams (1952)

Good-bye Joe, me gotta go, me oh my oh—

. | . | . | C | . |

me gotta go pole the pirogue down the bayou—

. | . | . | . | . | . |

My Y-vonne, the sweetest one, me oh my oh—

. | . | . | . | . |

Son of a gun, we'll have big fun, on the bayou—

Chorus:

Jam-ba-laya, crawfish pie and fillet gumbo—

. | . . . | C . . | C . .

'Cause to-night, I'm gonna see my cher a-mi-o—

. | . . . | G7 . .

Pick gui-tar, fill fruit jar, and be gay-o—

. | . . . | C .

Son of a gun, we'll have big fun on the bayou—

. | C | G7 . . . Thibo-daux, Fontain-eaux, the place is buzzin'—

. | | C | C . . . | Kin folk come to see Y-vonne, by the dozen—

. | | G7 . . . | G7 . . . | Dress in style, go hog wild, me oh my oh—

. | | C . . . | C . . . | Son of a gun, we'll have big fun, on the bayou—

Chorus:

Jam-ba-laya, crawfish pie and fillet gumbo—

| C | C | C |
| Cause to-night, I'm gonna see my cher a-mi-o—
| | G7 | C |
| Fick gui-tar, fill fruit jar, and be gay-o—
| | C | C | G7 | C |
| Son of a gun, we'll have big fun on the bayou——
