                    F FMA7 F6 F                    BbMA7  Bb6
Everybody's gone away,         said they're movin' to L.A

                  C7   C7sus C7                 F FMA7 F6 F
There's not a soul I know a-round,      everybody's leavin' town

                    F FMA7 F6 F                    BbMA7  Bb6
Some caught a freight, some caught a plane,     find the sunshine, leave the rain

                  C7   C7sus C7                      F FMA7 F6 F
They said this town will waste your time,      guess they're right-it's wastin' mine

   F                         BbMA7  C7
   Some gotta win, and some gotta lose,

                        F FMA7 F6 F C7                  F FMA7 F6 F
   Good Time Charlie's got the blues,      Good Time Charlie's got the blues
```

Instrumental Interlude: C7   C7sus   C7   F   FMA7   F6   F

```
                    F FMA7 F6 F                    BbMA7  Bb6
You know my heart keeps tellin me,         "You're not a kid at thirty-three

                  C7   C7sus C7                 F FMA7 F6 F
You play around, you lose your wife,       you play too long, you lose your life

                  F FMA7 F6  F                  BbMA7  Bb6
Got my pills to ease the pain,         can't find a thing to stop the rain

              C7   C7sus C7                 F FMA7 F6 F
I'd love to try and settle down,       but everybody's leavin' town

   F                         BbMA7  C7                       F  FMA7 F6 F
   Some gotta win, and some gotta lose,   Good Time Charlie's got the blues

   C7                         F FMA7 F6 F C7                  F FMA7 F6 F
   Good Time Charlie's got the blues,      Good Time Charlie's got the blues

   F FMA7 F6 F
   Whistle and fade
