Intro: ONE, TWO, ONE TWO THREE FOUR ∣ G ∣ Em ∣ (X2)

G                 Em          G                      Em                Bm
   Some love is just a lie of the heart,   the cold remains of what be-gan with a passionate start

                  D                                      G
And they may not want it to end, but it will, it's just a question of when

                  Em             G                    Em                Bm
I've lived long e-nough to have learned   the closer you get to the fire the more you get burned

                  D                                 G   Em  G   Em
But that won't happen to us, 'cause it's always been a matter of trust

G                 Em          G                    Em                    Bm
   I know you're an e-motional girl.    It took a lot for you to not lose your faith in this world

                  D                                 G
I can't offer you proof, but you're gonna face a moment of truth

                  Em         G                    Em                Bm
It's hard when you're always afraid,    you just recover when an-other belief is be-trayed

                  D
So break my heart if you must, it's a matter of trust

              C                      Bm7
   You can't go the distance with too much resistance

   Am7          D            G                    C
I know you have doubts, but for God's sake, don't shut me out

G                         Em        G                         Em                    Bm
   This time you've got nothing to lose,     you can take it, you can leave it, whatever you choose

                       D                           G
I won't hold back any-thing, and I'll walk away a fool or a king

                 Em        G                         Em          Bm
Some love is just a lie of the mind.     It's make believe until it's only a matter of time

                                   D                             G  Em G  Em Bm  D
And some might have learned to ad-just, but then it never was a matter of trust

                 C                         Bm7
   I'm sure you're aware, love, we've both had our share of

        Am7      D           G             C
   Be-lieving too long, when the whole situation was wrong

G                         Em        G                         Em                    Bm
   Some love is just a lie of the soul,     a constant battle for the ultimate state of con-trol

                       D                           G
After you've heard lie upon lie, there can hardly be a question of why

                 Em        G                         Em                    Bm
Some love is just a lie of the heart,     the cold remains of what be-gan with a passionate start

                 D                           G   Em
But that can't happen to us, 'cause it's always been a matter of trust

                 G   Em
   It's a matter of trust       (repeat and fade)
